DD/A REGISTRY
FILE: 70-4

Dear Mr. Kimmitt:

Mr. Steven Garfinkel's letter of 2 June 1983 to Mr. Fitzwater of the Central Intelligence Agency, which proposes to substitute language in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of paragraph 5 of the draft Sensitive Compartmented Information Nondisclosure Agreement, has been reviewed by the Chairman of the Director of Central Intelligence Security Committee. He has noted that the change removes from the review process all classified information not dealing with intelligence activities, sources or methods. Conservatively translated, these exemptions could exclude considerable classified material from the review process.

National Security Decision Directive 84 requires that the nondisclosure agreement for persons with SCI access include a provision for review to assure deletion of SCI and other classified information. The 2 June change does not fulfill that requirement. It is recommended that the language of paragraph 5 remain as in the 26 May draft.
